THE PRESIDENT HAS BEEN INVITED.

The Nation's Chief Executive May Possibly

Be Present at the Automobile Races Next Week.

Owing to the international character | least during the crowning of the Speed of the event, and the world-wide inter- King. est which it is attracting, President Roosevelt's presence is desired at the automobile tournament on the Ormond-Daytona Beach.

An invitation has been extended to President Roosevelt urging him to attend the meet, and Senators Taliaferro and Mallory will use their best efforts to secure an acceptance on the part of President Roosevelt, and not a stone will be left unturned that might help in securing his presence at the big event. Harry Fletcher Clips Off the Seconds

Unofficially on the Beach. Many Racers Arriving.

Harry Fletcher has been making remarkable time on the beach recently with Geo. W. Young's 110-horsepower Fiat. The other day he drove the machine a measured distance of threequarters of a mile over the beach in 20 seconds. This was at a rate of 27 seconds per mile. Fletcher was timed by three men holding stop watches. The beach was in perfect condition.

The fastest time for one mile, 32 4-5 seconds, was made by H. L. Bowden's 120-horsepower Mercedes in last year's tournament on the beach. The time was not considered official, as the machine was over weight. Arthur McDonald, in a 90-horsepower Napier car, holds the official record for one mile of Mrs. Delia B. Thompson is here from 34 2-5 seconds, made on the beach last

> The car that Fletcher drove in his fast trial is the one used by Vincent Lancia the Italian driver in the Vanderbilt cup race, which was leading at the end of the seventh lap by a wide margin. Flatcher is an American, and came into prominence as a skillful driver in the automobile races on the Ormond-Daytona Beach last year, when he made new records for 50 and 100 miles. He covered fifty miles in 36 minutes and 51 seconds, and the 100 miles in 1 hour and 15 miles and 24 seconds.

Racing machines are arriving daily, and it is not an unusual sight to see several speeding on the beach.

20 YEARS AGO.

Judge Townsend Contrasts His First Visit to Daytona With the City as it is Now.

Judge and Mrs. William Townsen and son, Leo Townsend, are distinguished guests of The Clarendon, from New Haven. Judge Townsend is Judge of the Supreme Court of Connecticut, and his son is a Yale student, who has been spending the holidays in Florida. They made a most exciting cruise in a 70-foot naptha launch from Tampa through the keys to Miami, arriving here by train from that point. This is Judge and Mrs. Townsend's second visit to this part of the country. Twenty years ago they came overland by team from Astor, on the St. Johns River, an all-day ride, finding but one hotel in Daytona, The Palmetto, and one large boardinghouse. Such wonders have been wrought, and great changes brought about, "Paradise regained, Flagler, and his wonderful Florida East Coast Railway System-opening the gates of transportation to the world. Judge Townsend said he was a bit disturbed on arriving that dark night, twenty years ago, to find that a representative party of railroad men were settled at the Palmetto House, the only hotel of the village, and all rooms were engaged, so he had to hunt outside quarters. But this recent visit, which has demonstrated what this party of representatives of Mr. Flagler has completed, he looks back to without a regret that his party made way for them and gave up their beds, if they did all arrive at the same time. Judge Townsend says Scabreeze and Daytona may fly their colors high in the breeze as ideal resorts of the East Coast of Flor-

Relieving the Brain

The persistent use of the muscular system is well calculated to relieve the brain and nervous system of their tension, says Dr. H. J. Hall in Good Housekeeping. It is also true that manual work pleases and satisfies the mind when its results are good. All this becomes clearer when we realize how vainly we may seek relief from nervous fatigue in physical rest or even in recreations of the ordinary sort. The quiet room or the quiet hillside, so suggestive of rest and peacethese are too often impotent in the presence of carking care. One reason for this failure is that the brain and the body are commonly not tired in what is called nervous exhaustion, but are only irritated, while the sense of fatigue, which is so misleading, is merely the result of that irritation and may be termed a psychic fatigue. Under these circumstances it is easy to understand that it is change, not necessarily physical rest, which is so sorely needed

Nailing the Ghost. · An extraordinary instance of rustic superstition has been brought to light in a Hungarian village. Owing to sinister runes as to the cause of death the authorities had the body of a peasant exhumed and were borrified to and the hands and feet nailed down to the coffin, while a long nail had also been driven through the heart. An inquiry was at once held, with the result that an old woman confessed that the act had been perpetrated under her directions. The man had died a sudden death, and, there being a superstition in Hungary that persons dying under such circumstances haunt the house in which they die, the further superstition has grown up that postmortem reappearances can be prevented by nailing the body in its coffin. The old woman further admitted having done the same thing in all similar cases for many years .-- London Globe.

Pleasures of the Table. Heliogabalus surpassed Vitellius HOTEL ARRIVALS

far as Vitellius surpassed Lucullus in the art of expending vast sums upon the pleasures of the table. According to Lampridius, he cost the government for each of his dinners more than $180,000 in our money! This statement almost transcends belief. At one of his banquets was served an entree consisting of the brains of 600,000 ostriches, quickly followed by another of broiled heels of an incalculable number of tender young canads! In the days of Shakespeare good digestion probably walted on appetite. Dining was a matter of fact business, and dinners were so lacking in the variety of dishes that an appetite was a accessity. In these days, as in the days of Vitellius, an appetite is a superfluity. Among the high livers it is satiated, dull, dead, wornout. Special dishes are invented to tickle and awaken it. Luculius, Vitellius and Heliogabalus are among the great departed, but their memory lives, and even in this day and generation

they have their imitators.

Why We Have Eggs Within Eggs. Instances of eggs within eggs are reported annually in the live stock periodicals, both with poultry and pigeons Such cases are examples of retarded laying. The ovlary channel is, through some unusual exciting state, deficient in lubricating fluid. The one egg. tem porarily stopped, is incased in the sec ond, which is thus formed around it. This accounts for the abnormal size of the completed egg, which is eventu ally evicted, at times with much pain and difficulty, and occasions death not infrequently through egg binding, as it is termed. The condition may be brought about by too much fat forming element in the fowls' dietary Indian corn, for example, as a sole food or in a measure may be constitutional and confined to an individual specimen or even to a strain of birds. The inner egg is often yokeless, though not in yariably so.

Dueling Pistols.

The pistol used in the duel is not the military arm or the revolver, but a very carefully made and wonderfully accurate weapon known as the dueling pistol. For many years the length of this arm was a matter of grave dis cussion at all the clubs in England and on the continent. At first the dueling pistol had a twelve inch barrel and carried twenty round bullets to the pound, but in 1810 the elder Devisure. with his confrere, Lepage, at Paris, and Manton and Egg of London, the most eminent pistol makers of their respective countries, fixed the actual length of the dueling pistol barrel at pine inches, and there it has remained A case of the best pistols used to bring from 500 to 750 francs, or $100 to $150.

Selling Soap Bubbles.

"Foreigners are constantly surprised at the Japanese schemes for earning a little money," writes a traveler in Japan. "In Choshi I saw the queerest yet. A man with a bucket and a bun die of bamboo tubes was going up and down the street selling soap bubbles. He carried soapy water, of which he Carpenter, New York; Mary Bailey, sold a small portion for one-twentieth or one-tenth of a cent. He left behind him groups of happy children, who filled the air with beautifully colored bubbles blown from tiny tubes."

Watting For an Belipse.

Lewis Swift, the astronomer, told how he waited in Denver for the eclipse of 1878. For a hundred years astronomers had expected this cempse, K. Wylie, Savannah, Ga. and three minutes before the computed time for it to begin Mr. Swift seated himself at his telescope and looked into a cloudless sky. "It was a sol-emn moment," said he. "No words can describe it. Slowly, as if time's ceaseless flow had begun to slacken. two of the three minutes had passed away, and no eclipse and nothing to fudicate that anything unusual would happen. I then began to count the tick, tick, tick of our sidereal clock till all the seconds had passed away, and no eclipse, but before the next tick I saw three black mountain peaks on the moon's limb glide on the sun. The eclipse had begun just three-quarters of a second too late." It is such things as this that make one respect the accuracy of the computations of the astronomers when they tell us about the distances in the heavens, the weight and size of planets and other kindred things.

King James' Books.

Some very fine binding was executed for King James I., who during his entire life was an enthusiastic patron of letters and art. In some of his books the thistle is introduced with heavy corner pieces, and the arms in the cen ter. One fine piece of work, now in the British museum, is in bright brown calf, powdered with flower-de-luce. Another folio in crimson velvet has the arms of England embroidered on both sides with gold thread on a groundwork of yellow silk. The king's initials are worked above. The lettering is in leather, and the boards are tied together by red ribbon, constituting a regal book in every particular. John Gibson, in Scotland, and the Barkers in England, were appointed to be the king's binders, but there is little trace of their work now extant.

Qualities Unlike In the Sezes. 'A man is a man down to his thumbs and a woman is a woman down to her little toes," writes Dr. Havelick Em in his book "Men and Women." There is hardly a measurable quality of any sort which is not unlike in the two sexes. Women even button their gar ments on the other side from that cho sen by men and choose Sunday instead of Monday as their favorite day for making way with themselves. So far as laboratory tests go Dr. Ellis says that women are unquestionably superior in general tactile sensibility and probably superior in the discrimination of tastes, with no advantage either way in the case of the other senses. Women have better memories, read more rapidly, bear pain better, recover better from wounds and serious illness, are less changed by old age and live

ATTRACTIONS.

DAYTONA is situated upon the west bank of the Halif- x River at its fairest expanse and maway between its source at Bulow Bay and its outlet rt Mosquito Inlet. It is in latitude 20, seventy-four miles from St. Augustine and one mile from the Atlantic Ocean, and is acknowledged to be without a rival for beauty among the villages of the South. Its site is upon what is known as high bammock land that was crowned by nature with a most royal growth of majestic forest trees, and among these trees is the town of to-day, with its beautiful cottages and well-graded walks and streets. The result is that all along the wide avenues that intersect the town are lordly live and water oaks and hickories, many of them draped with graceful festoons of the gray Spanish moss, that overarch the street and walks, and among these are interspersed tall tropical palmettos. glossy-leaved magnolias, fragrant bays and coral-berried holly, and many other varieties, while in many places the wild grape, the trumpet vine and the ampelopsis climb and cling among the branches forming shady bowers and adding grace and beauty.

The town lies parallel with the Halifax River, and extends for nearly two miles along the shore. This river is the delight of the angler and the yachtsman and forms one of the town's greatest attractions.

The main avenues that run par allel with or intersect the river are all 100 feet wide, except Beach street. which is about sixty-five feet, but has a half-mile of open, beautiful water abutting upon its eastern side, where the salt waves ebb and flow and along and across which comes the cooling. invigorating and health-giving breezes from off the wide Atlantic, which temper and render the Halifax climate one of the most perfect in the world Daytona has many miles of well-grad ed, marled and shelled roads and streets, rendering it the

Added to these features are good churches, good public and private schools, stores hotels, hundry, meat markets, novelty works, an opera house, electric lights for street and house illumination, a good telephone system, ice factory, favorite resort of those who delight Lily Water Works, and hot and cold it the sport of fishing. The surf baths, etc., and everything else can be here abounds in trout, pompano, yel procured that is necessary to make life comfortable. An important feat. ure in the healthfulness of this town is the

which is derived from numerous flowing wells, of which there are probably 300 in the corporate limits. This flow is secured by boring wells to the depth of from 80 to 120 feet, passing through several strata of rock, and this depth assures purity from all surface contamination. The water is slightly impregnated with magnesia and iron, and holds sulphur in the shape of gas, which soon passes away.

The Population of Daytons proper is about 1,800. Added this is a suburban population on main shore and peninsula of about 1,000 at Kingeton, Blake, Old Seabreeze or Goodall, Seabreeze and Silver Beach, which are properly a part of the town and population.

Daytona Beach

lies one mile east of the town. It is approached by three good bridges over the river and well-graded avenues, and is the principal summer resort south of St. Augustine. It has more tourists during the summer than all other places south of that city com bined, and is also becoming a favorite winter resort. The beach is wide, firm and smooth, by many considered the finest in the world, and the sur! bathing is safe and excellent summe and winter. People who have tried Northern and Western summer resorts declare that there are none so perfect " comfort as Daytona beach.

Automobile Race Meet.

The Florida East Coast Automobile Association conducts an annual race meet on the beach, which has now a universal reputation as the greatest automobile race course in the world. The Daytona-Ormond Beach is hard as macadam, and an ideal stretch of thirty or more miles without a break makes it the natural racing as the villagers rushed for safety or ground for America.

At low tide the beach is bared for 300 feet and neither carriage wheel, bicycle or pedestrian can make a hardly visible imprint on the smooth and well-packed sand. It is no uncommon sight to see sail-rigged bleycles speeding with the velocity of the body of his father. It was deemed wind before a stiff breeze along the wind before a stiff breeze along the smooth beach, thus affording the most exhilarating sport known to man. Be- was deprived of the customary honsides these, miles of hard-shelled, palmfringed boulevards bring the lovers of touch with the mainland over the broad oridges which span the splend Halifax River.

The beach from the sandy bluffs to the lowest point at ebbtide, measures about 500 feet, and the average depth of the surf measures about two feet A continuous gentle swell rolls in from the ocean from one to two feet in lepth under normal conditions, making the beach an attractive and abso lutely safe place for surf-bathing. Here the infant as well as the greybaired veteran of many summers, can safely enjoy the luxury of a sea bath throughout the larger part of the year, while the strong and expert swimmer, can venture out further to test his strength and skill in battling with the inexhaustible powers of the mighty

At the foot of Ocean Boulevard, Seabreeze, a pier reaches 600 feet across the beach into the swelling surf of the ocean. This pier is a lowtail, cavalle, whiting, drum, sheepshead and many other varieties of edible fish. During the fall season the famous sea bass affords royal sport, and it has been no uncommon occurrence to land a thousand pounds of this gamey fish in an afternoon, individuals of them ranging from fifteen to thirty-five pounds in weight. Not only does the ocean offer this splendid sport but the Halifax River, only half a mile back of the ocean, is equally famous for its fine fishing, and the varieties that abound in the cean are present in the river.

Hunting and fishing good, Ex. perienced guides and dogs may be had at reasonable prices.

A Fine Sense of Humor.

The Russian Emperor Ivan IV. once ordered one of his high court officials to procure for him a measure full of fleas, and when the poor man failed, through the friskiness of the insects in jumping out of the measure, had his head cut off and inflicted a fine of 7,000 rubles on the city of Moscow for its share in the fullures On other occasions he would wander away into the country with some boon companions and a few caged bears, and when he came to a peaceful village would let slip the bears and shrick with laughter fell victims to the hungry animals.
